30 Years: Amy Belford, Half Day Fourth-Grade Teacher

29 Years: Cathy Nasenbeny, Daniel Wright Seventh-Grade English Teacher

27 Years: Rodney Owens: Daniel Wright Band Director

25 Years: Nancy Fencel, Half Day Band & Music Teacher

14 Years: Ann Voermans, Sprague Clerical Staff

13.5 Years: Helena Thompson, District 103 Bus Driver

11 Years: Nancy Borkman, Daniel Wright Speech Pathologist

6 Years: Penny Williams, Half Day Nurse

Amy Belford

After 33 years in education, 30 years in D103, Half Day Fourth Grade Teacher Amy Belford is retiring. Amy plans to volunteer at a school near her new home in Door County, WI. She also plans to enjoy leisurely lunches with her fellow fourth grade retirees. She is currently in search of a winter home in Arizona and will happily welcome visitors.

Michael Mol

After 36 years in education, 31 years in D103, Daniel Wright Math Teacher Michael Mol is retiring. While he will miss the friends he's made and his work with students, he looks forward to spending more time with his granddaughter and other family members.

Cathy Nasenbeny

After 34 years in education, 29 years in D103, Daniel Wright ELA Teacher Cathy Nasenbeny is retiring. As an avid reader of literature and a writer, Cathy will miss the class discussions and student papers where they express themselves. While she will miss her friends here, she plans to treasure those relationships in addition to spending more time with her family and enjoying hobbies.

Rodney Owens

After 33 years in education, 27 years in D103, Daniel Wright Band Director Rodney Owens is retiring. Rodney will miss working with students and seeing their musical progress in addition to his time with colleagues. Rodney looks forward to doing more woodworking, traveling, and settling into his Colorado home.

Nancy FencI

After 31 years in education, 25 years in D103, Half Day Band Director & Music Teacher Nancy FencI is retiring. Nancy will miss watching her students grow as musicians and her comradery with the music staff. Nancy's retirement is filled with music from attending a brass band camp in England to performing with the Waukegan Symphony and the Prairie Brass Band. She also plans to enjoy the outdoors bicycling, gardening, and hiking.

Ann Voermans

After 14 years working in the Sprague front office and as a lunchroom aide, Ann Voermans is retiring. Ann will miss the staff at Sprague and the quizzical young minds of the students there. Ann plans to move to Appleton, WI, where she enjoys a lake house.

Nancy Borkman

After 33 years as a speech and language pathologist, 11 years in D103, Nancy Borkman is retiring from the district. Nancy's favorite part of her job was watching her students' confidence grow as their communication blossomed. Nancy will continue as a pathologist in the private sector working with adults and youth. She will continue to sing with the Swedish Glee Club of Lake County, work in the Covenant Church food pantry garden, and cook and create delicious recipes.

Helena Thompson

After 13.5 years working as a D103 bus driver, Helena Thompson has retired. Transportation will miss Helena's smile and kindness. She treated every student as if they were her own child. Each morning she greeted colleagues with a smile. Her kindness lent her to always help out wherever she was needed.

Penny Williams

After six years as a nurse, Penny Williams is retiring from D103. She will miss the interactions with the students and staff. She will leave Half Day with fond memories. She plans to keep her foot in the door through subbing. She also hopes to volunteer in the community when she isn't spending time in warm weather states during Illinois' coldest months.
